PAC Principal's Report for April, 2019

Mission Statement: Our mission is to provide a rich, stimulating, and challenging environment for all of our diverse students forming a community where all learn to reach their potential. We create and support an environment where students are engaged and practices reflect a global education, the individual needs of each child, and a focus on achieving excellent results.

School Improvement Plan:

Goal #1 To Improve Writing

- o Grade 4-8 writing continuum has been completed for grade 6-8.
- o Mrs. West and Mrs. Pulliam have been co-teaching writing lessons using newly developed story boxes.

Goal #2 To Develop the Personal and Social Skills

- o Play school visits on February, 3rd March in March.

Information and Discussion Items:

- o Update on Asbestos Incident
- o New regulations for vehicle at drivers
- o Update on quote for delivery of hot and double sink
- o Update on new server room, plumbing and rocky for a water filling station/fountain.
- o Update on computers in school and tech plan
- o New initiative to reduce waste (each recycling cart: soft drinks, recycled plastic and paper, compost, garbage and now empty 1/2 litre bottles). School Board has to take this on. Hope to get 1 very big for each room. Starting help from PAC to only use containers with zero impact on garbage (Styrofoam) Ideas to purchase reusable cups for all hot lunch and more to buy (kids use on them). Incentive for kids to use reusable juice containers instead of juice boxes.

- Parent Information on New Curriculum night, Thursday April 11 at 6pm at SMS
- Student Led Conferences coming up. One of 3 informal reports of the year.
- Student Learning Survey, grades 4 and 7 students and parents and all staff
- Playground: Gaga Ball pit (will need to pay Carlin and pick up), Outdoor Learning Circle, construction in May
- Go Grant: did not get funding to support transportation to Kingfisher
- School Fee Review, Agendas
- Salmon River Run: Wednesday May 1. Orders gone out to SAW and FLK. Will there be freezies and candy for sale?
- Indigenous Healthy Living Grant, (smoker, outdoor archery for Div 1 and 2, bannock)

Wish List:

Water filling fountain
